Friday 27th March

To the children of Jarrow Cross,

The school is so quiet without you all, there is hardly anyone making a noise in the corridors or laughing in the yards. The teachers and myself are missing you so much.

You will know a lot about what is going on at the moment and may be frightened and anxious, but remember lots of people are working very hard to make sure things go back to normal as quickly as possible.

We hope that you are having fun at home as well as completing the tasks and activities the teachers have set for you. Use this time wisely to play games with your parents and brothers and sisters (please try not to fight over who wins!) be kind to everyone especially your parents as remember this is a very strange and uncertain time for them too.

We really really hope to see you all soon, but in the meantime take care, have fun and most importantly stay safe.

Missing you all, take care,

Mrs McBeth and everyone at Jarrow Cross
