

7.11.22

1600s Democracy, disease and danger

1. Who was Samuel Pepys and why do we study him?
2. What is the difference between a primary source and a secondary source?
3. Explain why some houses had a red cross on their door.
4. What is the Mortality Bill and why is it important to historians?
5. Explain why the validity of a source is important to people who study history.